We're surrounded by amazing friends and are Godparents to several of their children

Our neighborhood has lots of young families and hosts holiday events, movie nights, and pool parties!

We had the opportunity to care for another child in a foster care situation for a few weeks and it showed us that our hearts yearn to grow our family

We try not to take life too seriously...

... to laugh often ...

... and we enjoy exploring, traveling, and making new memories!

Thank you for considering us to parent your child – we hope that this little glimpse into our lives helps make your decision a little bit easier. Whether you choose us or not, please know that we will continue to pray for you and your child.

We truly wish you and your baby the very best!
